School Background

The Fannindel Independent School District is a consolidated public school district. The consolidated school was the result of a vote of the Ladonia and the Pecan Gap school districts in 1960. Clark School, the previous all black school, was part of the Ladonia School District. Clark High School became part of Fannindel in 1966. Clark Elementary, grades 1-8, was integrated in 1967.

Fannindel Independent School District, a 1A school, is based in the small northeast Texas towns of Ladonia and Pecan Gap. Fannindel High School, located in Ladonia, serves grades six through twelve. In addition to Ladonia, the district serves the city of Pecan Gap. Fannindel Elementary School, located in Pecan Gap, serves grades pre-k to five.

The district's name is a portmanteau of Fannin and Delta, the counties in which it is primarily located. The district also includes the northeast portion of Hunt County.

The current enrollment in Fannindel ISD is 206 students. The average class size is about 11 students per teacher, compared to the state average of 15.

FISD strives to provide a variety of programs to meet the educational needs of all students in a safe, comfortable, and student-centered environment. For more information about Fannindel ISD, please visit our website, www.fannindelisd.net or call (903) 367-7251.
